Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868. The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.
During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.
We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.
Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.
The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.
Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.
Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.
TERMS MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.
The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. JAMES T. RUBNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:
1. It is a MUTUAL Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel on Lines in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON FORFEITING.
5. Its loans have been made to the actual insured alone, and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. Its assets are over $1,500,000, of which $500,000 is invested in Canada.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company does which issues
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured, which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH LIFE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

SALES OF REAL ESTATE, &c.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County, at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday the 15th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as THE KEOCO MILLS,
consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.
The cultivable are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 800 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.
The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular Saw, run by a Jonvain Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed. There is also a tram road from the Mill to the railroad where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and beautifully situated on a hill, containing eight rooms, to which are attached all necessary outhouses and Stables, with two Gardens, one of which contains one of the largest and finest Scuppernong Arbors in the State.
A LARGE AND CONVENIENT DWELLING,
The water on the place is excellent, and it is one of the healthiest locations in the low country.
TERMS OF SALE:
One hundred and fifty dollars cash; four thousand two hundred and fifty dollars on the 15th day of January, 1869, and notes at six and twelve months from the day of sale, bearing interest. For the balance, bonds with approved security will be required, and the title retained until the purchase money is paid. Possession given on the first day of February, 1869.

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER, Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

THE LAST USURPATION.

The resolution of Mr. Upson, of the House of Representatives, as amended by Mr. Boutwell, and as it passed the House, provides that the existing governments in the Southern States shall be abolished, and that Gen. Grant shall be authorized to detail officers of the army to fill the civil offices. We have little idea that the resolution, in its present form, will be accepted by the Senate. It is generally understood that Judge Chase is the favorite of a majority of the Senators for the Presidency, and that he will have sufficient influence to defeat a proposition, which, if carried into effect, would infallibly secure the voice of the Southern States in favor of the nomination of Gen. Grant.

However that may be, we anticipate some action, on the part of Congress, looking to the speedy abrogation of the existing governments. Some such act of bad faith is necessary to make up the culmination of Radical perfidy. Presenting certain Acts for the acceptance of the South as a finality, they have already, in four important particulars, accumulated the severity of their exactions, and it only remains for them to adopt the last and crowning act of treachery and usurpation.

There seems to be a confident impression prevailing in well-informed political circles, that the Supreme Court of the United States will very shortly declare unconstitutional and null the entire Reconstruction programme of the usurping Congress. We shall not stop now to speculate upon what would be the effect of such a decision upon the rotten fabric of Radical reconstruction. If the question is brought fairly and squarely before the Court, there can be no doubt that it would declare, what Stevens admits, and what any lawyer in the land, worthy of the name, holds, that the whole scheme is violative of the plainest provisions of the Constitution. That being done by the high tribunal, to which the adjudication of such issues properly belongs, the President, in the execution of his sworn duty, will see to it that the Constitution is obeyed, as interpreted by the Court.

But, taking it for granted that no such decision is reached, that Congress shall go on in its course of madness and aggression, that these legitimate and rightful governments are disbanded, and that the officers elected by the people, who alone had the right to elect them, are removed,—what then?—Save that, as a lover of the old State of North Carolina, we should deplore her further humiliation beneath the feet of tyranny and grovelling hate, we shall have no regrets to express. So far as the civil officers of the State are concerned, from the highest to the lowest, they occupy no beds of roses. Personally, to the majority of them, it would be a relief to be freed from the perplexing cares and annoyances, the harrassing interferences, to which they have been subjected under the present condition of things. Their sole feelings, and our sole feelings, in seeing North Carolina,—one of the "Old Thirteen," and a State older than the Constitution itself—thus raped of the last attribute of her sovereignty by the lawless hand of violence, would be those of grief that such things could be in a land of boasted liberty.

Further than that, we have no objection to the new usurpation, and for two reasons: First, we should be willing that the world should see the spectacle which would be presented, if our civil offices are only to be filled by negroes and those who can pronounce the Radical shibboleth of "loyalty." We can anticipate the disgust and abhorrence of every lover of his country, at the revolting sight of ignorance, imbecility and corruption revelling in the places which have been adorned by good men, and degrading the genius and character of Republican institutions. And, secondly, Radicalism, already doomed by the awakening sense of the people, would thus drive the last nail in the coffin which is awaiting to receive its carcass.

THE ATLANTIC HOTEL.—The Norfolk papers state that this huge edifice is fast approximating completion. It is stated that Dr. Blacknall, the celebrated caterer at Kittrell's Springs, and, of late, for his Railroad Hotel, proposes to rent the Atlantic, when finished.

THE SPIRIT OF IMMIGRATION.

We observe that large numbers of planters from Pennsylvania and West Virginia are selling out their farms and removing to Old Virginia, especially to the Valley, and purchasing farms. Should this spirit continue for a few years, Virginia will be on her feet again, and the white population will be able to control her destiny, in all respects, even should Radical rule predominate in the country.

A movement is on foot in Wilmington to encourage immigration to this State.—Leading gentlemen are taking part in this movement, and we hope something good will come of it. But to accomplish anything which will prove really effective, it must be a movement in which the people of the State, generally, shall be interested.

A State Immigration Association should be formed, not only embracing our people generally, but with ample means to carry out liberal and judicious plans for its accomplishment. An agency should be established in New York, with means sufficient to employ the printing press liberally and to send an agent through the Northern States and also one to Europe.

The simple design of inducing foreign laborers to emigrate to this State is neither broad enough nor does it promise a sufficient good, for the expenditure or aims of an Immigration Association. The undeveloped mineral, agricultural and manufacturing resources of the State are perhaps unequalled by those of any State in the South. Twenty millions of money, and an addition of at least one million of souls to our population, within the next five years, would just begin to unfold to the world our immense resources.

The history of the past two years, we admit, does not speak as favorably as we desire, for the freedman as a laborer. The circumstances which have surrounded him have been unfavorable to his improvement in skilled, systematic labor. The ideas of equality, with which his pseudo-friends have filled his head, have excited his ambition and encouraged a mistaken notion of independence, altogether fatal to the obligations of a laborer. Virtue, industry and regular labor are the only proper foundations for independence; but the pledges of the Freedmen's Bureau for food and clothing, and protection in indolence and crime, have produced their legitimate fruits, and rendered the negro unfit for the responsibilities of a laborer.

Bad as the prospect is, we are not without hope that time, experience, and a wise, constitutional, as well as humane, legislation for the blacks, will go far to correct the vagaries which Radical teaching and legislation have engendered in their minds; and should they remain in these States, they may yet become useful as laborers and profitable to themselves and to the country. But besides the negro laborer, large numbers of white persons have gone to work in good earnest. This number will be increased, and but little time will be necessary to effect a vast improvement in the skill and employment of labor, hitherto unknown.

Our vast mineral resources are to be brought out. The great ability of our soil for improvement, and our immense water power, require capital and intelligent managers to develop them. More laborers are not so much needed, as an increase of population, with means to aid in this development. One hundred energetic, experienced farmers, able to purchase and to cultivate a hundred acres of land, who will come among us to settle permanently with their families, will be worth ten times as much to the real wealth and improvement of the State, as the addition of five thousand ignorant, poor and often vicious laborers, white or black.

We hope, therefore, that our enterprising and intelligent citizens, who are looking to immigration as a means of benefitting themselves and the State, will have due regard to the character of the population which they would introduce. The State is sufficiently supplied with thriftless, vagrant and unproductive people. Let us, in seeking additions to our population, be sure that we do not increase that class, instead of diminishing it.

"TRAITOR."—If there be any one thing more silly and contemptible than another, it is the constant cry of "Traitor" against white men, who will not consent to the Radical theory of negro-equality, and who have some self-respect left and some regard for their race. Hunnicutt, who is a fair representative of many of the low whites that make up the Radical party,—a class far inferior to the negroes themselves,—pronounced the Hon. R. M. T. Hunter a traitor in the Virginia mongrel Convention, a few days since, and was called a liar, therefor. It was wasting breath to have noticed him at all. The abuse of such creatures as Hunnicutt, is the highest compliment that a decent man could possibly desire.—Those who have so far degraded their manhood as to put themselves on a level of perfect equality with the negroes, to eat, drink and sleep with them, are welcome to abuse us to their hearts' content. We mind it about as much as we would the railings of a convicted thief through the bars of a jail.

NORFOLK.—The evidences of energy and thrift, displayed by the citizens of Norfolk, are highly encouraging. With one of the best harbors in the country and so near the ocean, it ought to vie with any other harbor on the Atlantic coast, in the activity of its commerce. The judicious internal improvements of the State are bringing Norfolk in contiguity with the great West. The Day Book says that, on the 8th. inst., sixty-three cars arrived at Portsmouth, loaded with freight from Memphis, Chattanooga and other parts of the Southwest, without breaking bulk. It says that Norfolk is indebted to the energy of Gen. Mahone for this.

In this struggle for business which the times render imperious, we hope to see Newbern and Wilmington bestirring themselves. They have difficulties to contend with, which are great, but not insurmountable, we trust. If they had their former wealth, how soon would they overcome them! We trust a better day is dawning for both of them.

THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

There has been an error in the official call for the Conservative State Convention, which is corrected in our issue of to-day. The time for its assembling has been stated as Thursday, February 5th. It should read Wednesday, February 5th. Our brethren of the Press will please note the correction.

By the way, we are pleased to observe that the Conservative papers of the State, without an exception, so far as we have seen, cordially endorse the call for the Convention, and are earnestly urging the necessity of a full attendance. Let us have the greatest Convention of the people that has ever assembled in the State, and speak out the voice of North Carolina in tones worthy of her better days.

THE NEW YORK Tribune, referring to the well-authenticated accounts of negro outrages in the South, which it denominates "magnificent lying," asks "what if such misrepresentations, on the part of white men, should induce the Reconstruction Conventions in States like South Carolina, where the blacks are in a majority, to exclude all whites from testifying in the courts?"

We have only to say that such a procedure would be in exact consonance with the Radical doctrine of negro supremacy, and we should not be at all surprised to see it attempted. What do the Radicals care for the rights of the white man? The ebony idol is the object of their degraded worship.

MISCHIEVOUS.—The Head of the Loyal Leaguers in this State, ever bent on mischief, we understand has been laboring to impress it upon the military authorities, and the members of the Convention, that the present State authorities are disposed to refuse the State House, wood, stationery, &c., for the use of the Radical State Convention. We presume that this will be news to Gov. Worth and the other State officers. Such an idea, we judge, had never occurred to them. "O! Lucifer! thou son of the morning, how art thou fallen,"—and yet thy compeer and fellow-laborer, the Head-Centre of the Leagues, has fallen still lower!

THE BURNING OF THE OXFORD JAIL.—There is now no doubt that Henderson Cooper, and his fellow-prisoner, were burned to death in the Granville jail. Their bones were found when the fire died out. Cooper (who, it will be recollected, was the negro who committed rape on a white woman, and whose case we commented on, some days since,) had once escaped from jail by burning part of the timber of his cell. It is supposed that he was making another attempt to burn his way out, when the fire spread and consumed the building.

THE NEW GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.—The inauguration of Governor Bowie, "the first Executive elected under the new constitution of the re-enfranchised people of Maryland," took place, in accordance with the provisions of that instrument, at Annapolis. The inaugural address of the Governor was such as became the chosen representative of the noble people of Maryland. Its tone may be judged from the following extracts:

"The restoration of the Southern States to their proper position in the Union; their representation in Congress by such representatives as they may by their proper suffrages, uncontrolled by the bayonet, select; the control of suffrage and all other local or domestic questions, which the federal constitution does not expressly regulate, by the States themselves; white supremacy the country over, not negro equality here in the North and negro domination there in the South; negro suffrage only in those States the white voters of which may determine to elevate the negro to their own level; the rigid subordination of military to civil authority; the restoration of the whole people to all their rights; the return at the earliest practicable day to the constitutional currency of gold and silver; a fairer adjustment of our revenue laws; a decrease of taxation; the revival of agriculture, commerce, industry and trade throughout the whole country; the cultivation of amity and concord and fraternal love between the States and all the people of the Union—peace in fact as in name—these are the aspirations which the people cherish, these are the lessons taught by the election in Maryland, as in the great States of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky and New Jersey, the golden State of California, and first in the smaller but no less patriotic States of Connecticut and Delaware.

Of fanaticism, of crime, of bloodshed, we have had more than enough—enough of self-abasement for self-advancement—too much of mere party strife. Patriotism should now awaken us to the true and material interests of the country.

As our fathers in the past intended no such result, the present will never consent, the future will never pardon, that ten States of the Union, already desolate and depressed, shall be dissevered and absolutely surrendered to discord, despotism and destruction; or that military usurpation shall ignore the rights of our own race; professedly in the interest, but really in the ruin of the negro. He should be, as he is, the object of our sympathies. He should be, as he is, protected in all his rights. But he should not, as he never will, be made the equal or the ruler over the white man.—Experience has demonstrated that a wise God has stamped him with the seal of inferiority. Let no man affect greater wisdom than his Creator.

* * * * * * *

The condition of the South is now such that one would suppose, if the dictates of statesmanship did not change the policy of Congress, the impulses of common humanity would stay their hands. With little left for vengeance or malignity to wreak itself upon, or cupidity to seize, the most embittered enemies should lie satisfied with the fulness of their work. Can they, without emotions of sympathy, look upon a people proverbial for all social virtues, for kindness and hospitality, for excessive endurance and great gallantry, dissevered from the Union, and reduced to a state of anarchy and political despair? Can they forget the great aid of these very people, "bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh," in the establishment of American independence? and that since our national existence until the recent deplorable civil war, which the whole country may well ask itself if the South was alone responsible for, her heroes in war and statesmen in peace have equally with their Northern brethren exerted themselves that every star upon the national ensign shall be emblematic of the position each State shall be entitled to hold as a free and independent member of the National Union!

THE 8TH OF JANUARY BANQUET.

The fifty-third anniversary of the battle of New Orleans was celebrated by the Democrats of the District of Columbia, and many invited guests from all parts of the country, by a grand banquet at the Metropolitan Hotel, Washington, on Wednesday evening last.

Speeches were made by President Johnson, Judge Black, Hon. T. Marshall, of Ohio, Hon. Reverdy Johnson, Attorney-General Stanbery, Senator Doolittle, General Ewing, and others.

Attorney-General Stanbery said, among other things:

"Gentlemen,—I have been at the bar for nearly half a century, and have been a constant student, not only of the common law, but of our own constitutional law, and I do not hesitate to say that the whole of these reconstruction acts of Congress from beginning to end—first, second, and third, in the series—are unconstitutional and void. There are times when to be silent is to be unfaithful. There are times when men must speak out. I will not attempt to school myself into reticence upon these great questions, and I could not if I would."

Senator Doolittle said:

"Now, fellow-citizens, having thus expressed to you frankly, openly, fearlessly, the truth on this question, it behooves you, gentlemen, who control the action of the Democratic party, to see to it that you so arrange your programme in the coming contest that you do not attach yourselves to any dead issue—that you do not place upon any dead issues any dead men. [Applause.] You must seek the living issues of the hour, and you must put living men upon your tickets to represent that issue, or you will be beaten in the canvass. [Applause.] Let me speak to you plainly. I have no concealments. I speak to you just as I have spoken to the Republican party, or Union party, with which I have been associated in the re-election of Mr. Lincoln. I tell you, gentlemen, it is as true as that God lives and reigns, if you, in the next canvass, shall plant yourselves upon a platform which shall undertake to condemn, either directly or indirectly, the war to put down the Radicals of the South—the war which was to sustain the Union and the Constitution—you will be beaten in the election. [Applause.] You must commit no such folly as that. I speak to you as a Conservative who is ready to fight for the Constitution and the Union, and I tell you that if you wish to take position in this Government as you ought to do, and to overthrow the Radicals, you must take hold of the living issues of the hour, and plant living men upon those issues as your standard-bearers, and they will carry you to victory. [Applause.]

Now, there are some who suppose that General Grant, by bowing down to these Radicals, and running upon their ticket, is to be so powerful that he cannot be overcome in the election. Let me tell you that if Gen. Grant expects the nomination upon this Radical policy, and in favor of the policy of negro domination over the whites of the South, Gen. Grant will be like Samson in the lap of Delilah—he will be like any other man. (Laughter and cheers.)

Who our candidate may be we cannot tell until after the convention shall have met and indicated its choice; but whoever he may be, if he be a living man (that's it) upon the living issue of the hour, which is simply whether white men and civilization shall rule the States of the South, and hold the balance of power in this Republic, we shall elect him. [Hearty and prolonged cheering.] I will not mention candidates, because we have a great many of them, but possibly it may be Mr. Johnson. [Great applause.] A Voice—"Possibly Mr. Doolittle." Renewed cheering.] It may be General Hancock. [Tremendous applause.] It may be many others for whom different States may express their preference. [A Voice—"It may be Mr. Stanbery."] I have no disposition on this occasion to discuss their merits, because I would discuss nothing but the principle—to wit, The maintenance of the Constitution and the Union, and the supremacy of the white race and of civilization in the control of the whole country. ["Good! good!" and applause.] I am not in favor of any candidate who is in favor of the Africanization of the South, and of Africanizing the whole Republic.—[Prolonged cheering, followed by three hearty cheers for the honorable speaker as he resumed his seat.]

Eloquent letters were read from ex-President Pierce; Hon. George H. Pendleton; Gov. Swann, of Maryland; General Odon Bowie, of Maryland; Secretary McCulloch, Hon. J. Q. Adams, of Massachusetts; Gov. Joel Parker, of New Jersey; Charles C. Greene, of Boston; Hon. George W. Jones, of Iowa; Hon. John M. Binckley, Assistant Attorney General; Hon. Thomas S. Bramlette, of Kentucky; Hon. August Belmont, of New York; Rear Admiral Radford; Hon. John A. Greene, of New York; Governor B. F. Perry, of South Carolina; ex Gov. Seymour, of Connecticut, and Hon. F. P. Blair.

CALLING TO ACCOUNT.—A suit has been commenced in New York against Mr. Chas. A. Dana by Mr. J. R. Lamar for the recovery of $100,000 damages for alleged false imprisonment by defendant's order while acting as Assistant Secretary of War.—Lamar says he was arrested in Savannah on the 27th of April, 1865, and taken to Washington, where he was confined in an ill-ventilated and vermin-infected cell. After suffering three months' imprisonment he was released on parole. Dana's counsel moving to transfer the action to a United States Court, plaintiff's counsel opposed the motion, on the ground that the act of 1867, affirming the validity of the President's proclamations, virtually repealed the act authorizing the transfer of such cases to United States Courts. The Court took time to consider.

This suit is said to be one of a series which certain parties similarly aggrieved have combined to institute against such government officials as are supposed to have imprisoned them during the war without proper authority.

When civil authority shall have fully reasserted itself in the country, we expect to see certain parties kept busy the rest of their lives answering for personal grievances inflicted under the license of military power. The prospect should act as a caution to the military rulers of the South. When the Supreme Court shall have declared, as it will some day, the reconstruction acts unconstitutional and void ab initio, what shelter or defence will they have against prosecutions and suits for damages?—Rich. Whig.

THE COTTON TAX.—The action of the Senate upon the House bill repealing the cotton-tax does not meet the requirements of the case. The need of the South is too great, and the causes of that need are too deeply rooted, to be done away with by a relief so temporary as suspension of the tax for one year. In fact, it may be seriously questioned whether Congress designs the measure as an aid to the South or even to the negro. The bill as passed will accrue to the benefit chiefly of Northern dealers and manufacturers.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES IN DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA, $33,000.

Judge E. A. HULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA,

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Etna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Etna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Etna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF ALL.

4th. That the Etna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and less than the average of all.

5th. That the Etna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Etna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Etna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Etna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Etna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

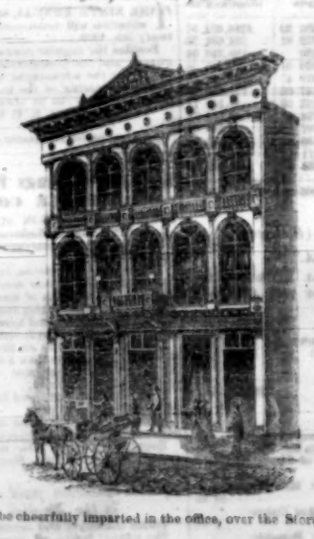
The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ETNA has over

$1,000,000

ABOVE LIABILITIES.



THE ETNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION
A VERY IMPORTANT FACT.
AND
HAS PAID $3,000 TO WIDOWS.
HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

APPROACHING STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention, to frame a Constitution for the old State of North Carolina, has been called by Gen. Canby to meet on the 14th. of the present month. We design to report the proceedings of that body as fully and as fairly as possible. The public will be interested in its proceedings, and it will add considerably to our expenses to report them. The presumption is that it will be in session a full month. The Daily Sentinel will be sent to any person who may desire it only during the session, for $1, cash in advance.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See the advertisement of Young's Boarding House, Fayetteville Street,—an excellent and cheap place of accommodation.

"Boots" announces himself a candidate for Assistant Doorkeeper of the Convention.

Flour, Buckwheat, Bacon, Butter: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville Street.

Rhodes vs. Rhodes—Petition for Divorce: J. N. Bunting, C. S. C., Wake.

Cockade City Ale, Corn Meal, Mountain Apples, Tallow: W. H. Jones & Co.

J. H. Horner: Classical and Mathematical School at Oxford.

Geo. T. Cooke can accommodate members of the Convention, and others, with good board.

CITY FINANCES.—A full exhibit of the receipts and disbursements of the City Treasurer, for the last year, is posted at the Court House, according to law, for the information of the public. Those who feel interest in the subject can consult it there.

SUPREME COURT.—This Tribunal convenes this morning, and we learn that all the Judges have arrived. To-day will be devoted to the applicants for license to practice in the County Courts.

FATHER RYAN.—We learn, with pleasure, that the Young Men's Christian Association have invited this distinguished and charming Southern Poet and Scholar to deliver a lecture in this City, in furtherance of the charitable objects of the Association. We hope soon to be able to announce that the invitation has been accepted.

REV. T. B. KINGSBURY has resumed the Editorial chair of the Warrenton Indicator. We are glad that his graceful pen is still to be employed in advancing the character of North Carolina journalism.

THE CONVENTION (SO-CALLED.)—Already there have been quite a number of arrivals of delegates, and there will doubtless be more than a quorum in attendance to-morrow. Candidates (white and black) for the various offices are as plenty as blackberries, and electioneering, upon a ga-lorious system of equality, is progressing industriously.—Some of the greedy patriots are destined to disappointment.

COMPTROLLER'S REPORT.—We commence to-day, and shall continue in successive numbers until completed, the Annual Report of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1867.—The document possesses general interest, as an exhibit of the receipts and disbursements of the State government. It is compiled and arranged in a manner that reflects credit upon Mr. Bargin's efficiency as an Officer of State.

ELEGANT SMOKING TOBACCO.—J. R. Green, Esq., the enterprising manufacturer at Durham's, is entitled to our thanks for a box of very superior Smoking Tobacco,—one of the finest articles we have ever seen or tried. It is put up with great neatness and the aroma is equal to a bouquet. We advise those, who would secure something that is indeed, A No. 1, to call on Mr. Green.

Durham's is famous, the country over, for its Smoking Tobacco. Either Mr. Green, or our friends Morris & Son, will fill orders, large or small.

For the Sentinel.

DEAR LOCAL:—Public opinion, heartily coinciding with the views expressed in the Sentinel of the 11th., concerning the admirable impersonation of Rip Van Winkle by Maj. Manly, is clamorous for a more definite notice of the "Mischievous Nigger." It is universally admitted that the gentleman who impersonated Antony Snow displayed, on Friday night, an appreciation of the negro character, and a comic vis in acting, which have never been excelled, by any delineators who have ever visited Raleigh.

NO JUDGE.—We learn that Gen. John F. Poindexter, who was tendered the vacant Superior Court Judgeship, by Gov. Worth, declined the honor. It is very much to be regretted that Gen. Poindexter could not, under present peculiar circumstances, accept the office of judge, which he is so eminently qualified to fill.—Salem Press.

BOARD OF VALUATION.

The following important Circular has just been addressed, by the Public Treasurer, to the Chairmen of the several County Courts in the State:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, Jan. 9, 1868.

SIR:—By the act to raise Revenue, ratified February 26, 1867, it is the duty of the County Courts, at the first term after the 1st. day of January, to appoint Boards of Valuation for the purpose of assessing the value of real estate in this State. The duties of the Court and of the Boards are particularly laid down in the act for collecting Revenue, ratified March 12th., 1866.

It must be remembered, however, that the taxes, payable in the Fall of 1868, will not be levied on the basis of the new valuation. By the act to raise Revenue it is provided that said new valuation shall be reported by the Clerks of the County Courts to the Public Treasurer, by him to be laid before the next General Assembly. For purposes of State and county levies the valuation of 1860, as modified in certain special cases of increase or decrease of values by reason of extraordinary causes, as provided in sections 28 and 29 of the act for collecting Revenue, will be retained until otherwise hereafter directed by law.

Very respectfully,
KEMP P. BATTLE,
Public Treasurer.

THE BOTTOM OUT.

Will Grant run upon a Republican platform, with the bottom out? That's the question. All eyes will soon turn upon the Supreme Court. The McCardle case, from Mississippi, is there. Not many days now will elapse before the case will excite more intense discussion and interest than anything in Congress.

The validity of the laws establishing military despotism in ten States of the Union is now brought directly in question, upon a habeas corpus case. McCardle was arrested, imprisoned, and arraigned for trial before a military commission, for publishing articles in a newspaper at Vicksburg, denouncing their acts as unconstitutional, and advising the people to vote against a Convention. It is a case involving personal liberty upon a writ of right, and it takes precedence before the Court.

The case presents the naked question of the validity of these laws. The Court must meet and decide it; and they will. These laws are such open, flagrant violations of the Constitution that it is impossible they will not be declared such by a majority of the Judges; and that decision knocks the bottom out of the Republican platform.

But the case is likely to present another interesting feature.

Upon the bench sits Chief-Justice Chase, a candidate for the Presidency, especially urged by the negro organizations of the South. President Johnson will be represented by the Attorney General, who must concede in open Court that those laws are unconstitutional; that will compel General Grant, who represents the War Department, and has the military reconstruction under his control, to come into Court also, by counsel specially employed for that purpose, or he must abandon the military supremacy sought to be established by those military reconstruction bills. And there will appear also the counsel of McCardle to represent the liberties of the people, and to maintain that the Constitution which expressly forbids the arrest and trial of American citizens not engaged in the naval or military service, by military courts, is still the supreme law of the land. But the curious inquiry now is, what immediate effect will it have upon candidates and parties?

Many sagacious men believe that General Grant, who has always expressed reluctance to leave his present high position to be a candidate for the Presidency, will say to the Radical politicians who desire to nominate him, "the bottom of your platform is gone. I have resolved to remain where I am upon the solid platform of General in-Chief of the Army, and shall adhere to that until I find a sounder basis than a Republican platform."

But for the Chief-Justice what a glorious opportunity to present himself in an elaborate opinion as the champion and defender of the negro and military despotism policy, and, par excellence, its head and representative. He may thus increase his chances for the nomination at Chicago. Let us wait patiently. We shall see.—N. Y. World.

DEPARTURE OF MR. DAVIS.—Hon. Jefferson Davis and wife left here last evening by the steamer Wild Wagoner for Natchez, Miss., whence they will proceed to visit familiar friends and localities in that State. The occasion of the departure attracted quite an assemblage to the vicinity of the steamer, and Mr. Davis was heartily cheered by a crowd of white and black as he stepped on board.—N. O. Crescent, Jan. 5.

North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public, FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c., in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C.; and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel H. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me, thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

NEW RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. P. M

The House Committee on Reconstruction this afternoon agreed upon a bill, to be reported on Monday, declaring that there are no civil governments in the lately rebellious States, and that the Provisional governments shall not be recognized as valid or legal either by the Executive or Judicial authority of the United States. In order to the speedy enforcement of the several reconstruction laws, the General of the army is authorized to remove all officers now employed, and appoint others; for the performance of all acts required by those statutes, to the end that the people of the said several States may speedily organize civil governments, Republican in form, and be restored to their political power in the Union.

So much of the reconstruction acts, as authorizes the President to detail the military Commanders or remove others, is repealed.

The bill declares it unlawful for the President to order any part of the army or navy to resist by force of arms the military of those Provisional governments, or to obstruct the authority of the United States.

The bill further declares that the interference by any person, with intent to prevent by force the execution of the orders of the General of the Army, shall be held to be a high misdemeanor, and that the party guilty thereof, on conviction, shall be fined not exceeding $5,000, and imprisoned not exceeding two years.

The bill repeals all parts of the reconstruction acts inconsistent with the above provisions.

Stevens voted against the bill in Committee, asserting that it was intended to elect Grant.

This Evening's Express has the following:

"The House Judiciary Committee will on Monday, report the Senate bill defining a quorum of the Supreme Court, with an amendment, providing that it shall be necessary that two-thirds of the Court shall agree, before any law of Congress shall be declared unconstitutional."

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11, P. M.

SENATE:—Mrs. Jessie Fremont petitions for the restoration of her property in San Francisco, taken by the military authorities.

Mr. Sumner presented a petition from negroes of Georgia, setting forth their miserable condition, and asking for relief.

Mr. Sumner offered a joint resolution, declaring the adoption of the fourteenth article of the Constitution. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The House devoted its time entirely to speeches.

FROM WAHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11, P. M.

The returns to the Department of Agriculture, relative to the cotton crop, indicate fully 20 per cent increase, in the aggregate, over the crop of 1866. The actual crop of 1867 as sold and shipped, making due allowance for receipt of the previous crop and amount not sent forward on the 1st of September, 1867, was very nearly 1,930,000 bales. The total estimate, made in view of all the Department data as well as outside information, is placed at 2,340,000 bales.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Jan. 11, P. M.

In the Convention, a preamble and resolutions, declaring the proceedings of the Convention usurpative in their character, and adjourning that body sine die, were laid on the table.

A resolution to cut down the pay to four dollars a day, after the 1st. of February, was tabled.

A resolution disfranchising all classes disfranchised by the Alabama Constitution, and one taxing all land two dollars per acre, were referred.

The rest of the day was spent in discussing a resolution, embodying the recognition of Deity in the Bill of Rights.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, GREATLY FACILITATES the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

Be sure and call for

"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup,"

Having the fac-simile of "CURTIS & PERKINS" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world.

Price, only 25 cents per Bottle.

A SAFE, CERTAIN, AND Speedy Cure FOR NEURALGIA, AND ALL NERVOUS DISEASES.

Its Effects are Magical.

It is the UNFAILING REMEDY in all cases of Neuralgia Facialis, often effecting a perfect cure in less than twenty-four hours, from the use of no more than TWO OR THREE PILLS.

No other form of Neuralgia or Nervous Disease has failed to yield to this WONDERFUL REMEDIAL AGENT.

Even in the severest cases of Chronic Neuralgia and general nervous derangements,—of many years standing,—affecting the entire system, its use for a few days, or a few weeks at the utmost always affords the most astonishing relief, and very rarely fails to produce a complete and permanent cure.

It contains no drugs or other materials in the slightest degree injurious, even to the most delicate system, and can ALWAYS be used with PERFECT SAFETY.

It has long been in constant use by many of our

MOST DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIANS,

who give it their unanimous and unqualified approval.

Notice to Shippers of Spirits Turpentine!

THE SEABOARD

INLAND AIR LINE,

VIA PORTSMOUTH, VA.,

IS NOW PREPARED TO SHIP

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

To Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New York, its Steamers having been arranged for that purpose.

THIS AIR LINE ROUTE, FROM THE FACT of its avoiding trans-shipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.

In shipping from the Northern cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.

From Boston, Merchants and Miners' Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.

From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Co., Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready, President, Office 187 Greenwich Street.

From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.

Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, J. L. Wilson, Agent.

From Baltimore, Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock, R. L. Poor, Agent.

All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to

JAS. McCARRICK, Trace Ag't.,
Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

THE SEABOARD AND ROANOKE RAILROAD AND BAY LINE, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantee safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

DAILY SENTINEL.

THE GREAT WILL CASE.

[The following lines were found in a lady's Album, and are thought to have been written by one of the Counsel for the Will, in the great case referred to. We publish them, simply on account of their humor,—supposing that no offence can be taken at a mere jeu d'esprit, which is at once so happy and so witty.]

Since Homer's day, 'tis sages say
In every clime and tongue,
Great battles have in Epic lay
By poets oft been sung,
And thus we learn that valiant men,
Whose deeds evoke surprise,
Have thousands slain, and often then
Been slain by woman's eyes.

Be it mine to sing, in lay sublime,
A terrific war of words—
Upon his legemen call ed;
Such noble son of noble sire
Could never stand appalled.
Then Wrenn, Bragg and Valiant Graham
All in the ranks appear,
And Zebulon of rebel fame,
And Nordan guards the rear.

Ah! vainly may I try to tell
How the great warriors rage,
How fume, how fret, how scold, how swell
As fierce the fight they wage—
How knights would prate and Dick would yell,
And how, amid the slaughter,
The cry was heard, all o'er the field,
"More whiskey and less water."

Cashie's knight was stricken sore,
Ere half the fight was done,
And Marion from the field of gore
Straight away did run.
Perquimans still urged on the strife
And many wounds were given;
Yet on they fought with ardor rife,
And many lungs were riven.

Then Roanoke his sword did wave,
Then Zeb his lance and shield,
And Bragg he swept the field.
I'm firm as rock bold Hertford stood
As the Graham his psalm ed,
While Raleigh, thirsting for their blood,
Low laid them with the dead.

This picture dire, of lawyer's ire,
Would be most diabolical,
If in these lines did not transpire
'Twas simply allegorical.
Books were torn and oaths were sworn,
And many a bottle broken,
And the warriors often looked forlorn,
With headache as a token.

Yet, strange to say, o'er this affray
A Merrimon presided,
Grave as a judge to see fair play
He well the contest guided
A modest man, forsooth, was he
Surrounded by the Graces,
Yet managed all their charms to see
Without staring in their faces.

There sweet sixteen and twenty one
In countless graces shone,
And widows there, both young and fair,
Too fair to live alone;
And beauties by their loving looks
Before one gaze were led,
And, not to deal in mincing words,
Some wished their lords were dead.

From all this chaos order came
And this the sage conclusion
Tho man was sane, (so the twelve proclaim,)
With the lawyers the delusion.
Now in grand epic, this war will live,
At Hobbs's instigation
The task was mine these lines to give,
But her's the inspiration!

NEW ARRANGEMENT
FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.
William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 1st. DECEMBER, 1867, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any. The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,	$8 00
" " six months,	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,	4 00
" " six months,	2 00
" " three months,	1 00
Weekly " for one year,	2 00
" " six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.
As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Important Order from Gen. Canby

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money or causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 28th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 29th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th day of May, 1861, and the 28th day of April, 1865, and the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 29th day of April, 1865, under the President's proclamation of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 28th of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th day of April, 1865, for the 18th day of May, 1865.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, or other employments, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her to support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make return thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is for a tort (no, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestuque trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 20, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or the fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or concerned therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32 to remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th and last days of each month, report to the judges of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of the trial of such cases. The additional expense attending such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

SOUTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise money," ratified on the 26th day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
